Please place your trashcan at the street by 5:00 a.m. on your collection day with the white serial numbers facing the street, and a four foot clearance around the can. With employees running double routes, your can may be emptied late in the day. If your trash is not emptied on the above listed day, please leave your can at the street and call Public Works at (931) 388-8650 the following business day. Please remove your can from the street after they have been emptied.

Please note that we post this information preceding each holiday in the Daily Herald, on orange "Sanitation" signs around affected Wards, and on our Facebook and Instagram pages. Collection calendars are posted on our website and social media pages.
